Oz Internet Radio Show, Part 1

by David Sielaff, January 2014

Read the accompanying Newsletter for January 2014

Listen to the MP3 of Oz Internet Radio Show, "David Sielaff Interview, Part 1," while you read along.¹

This article is a transcript of a radio show I did on October 4, 2013. The host was Paul Jamieson who has his own Australian internet radio show, with cohost James Weston. Paul learned about ASK from GeorgeAnn Hughes and The Byte Show. Paul and I arranged to do a live broadcast. Paul gave permission for me to transcribe the show and link the MP3 (above). In this way, you can listen while you read the article. The topic originally was to be about the nature of God, but the conversation became wide-ranging and educational. In the article I add notes, words in brackets for clarification, and Bible verses to reinforce my arguments.

Paul Jamieson (PJ): Hello and welcome to the Oz Radio Show. We are live with James Weston. How are you doing James?

James Weston (JW): I'm doing fine.

PJ: Excellent. Yesterday we had Fritz Springmeier and today we will have an equally fantastic, an A+ [guest] in my book, Mr. David Sielaff. David Sielaff are you there?

David Sielaff (DWS): Yes sir, how are you doing? How are both of you doing? I am doing great.

JW: Just waking up, having a good time, doing this show.

Introduction

PJ: I'm afraid I am going to fall asleep. No, no, we're doing fantastic, David, absolutely. We're doing fantastic. David Sielaff is the Director of the Associates for Scriptural Knowledge, and he is carrying on the work of Dr. Ernest L. Martin. That is what you do isn't it David?

DWS: Yes. The Associates for Scriptural Knowledge is a non-denominational, non-congregational organization that publishes on the internet, a few DVDs, and other venues, and publishes books. Mostly we are a web-based ministry. What we do is we publish what we have learned, mostly from the archived work of Dr. Ernest Martin. He wrote excellent books on the Star of Bethlehem. At one time over 600 planetariums, so he was told by Griffith Planetarium, over 600 planetariums changed their presentations on the Star of Bethlehem to his [Dr. Martin's] scenario. Originally they had all taught the Keplerian concept of the Star. Over 600 switched. Unfortunately, many of them, especially in the United States have switched, have changed over to a secular presentation, or have dropped the Star presentation totally, like Griffith Planetarium did.

[Dr. Martin] also wrote another book called 101 Bible Secrets which is a small Reader's Digest [kind of book]. The Star of Bethlehem book is online. 101 Bible Secrets is also online, with small [articles] about things that most people believe, but are wrong, about the Bible.

Then [Dr. Martin] wrote a book called Restoring the Original Bible, which is not a new Bible. It is about the design and development of the Holy Scriptures. You would be surprised. The New Testament canonization process is described in the New Testament and most people do not understand that. Dr. Martin explains that [process], and it is really amazing.

Another book [Dr. Martin wrote] called Secrets of Golgotha demonstrates and proves without doubt that the crucifixion took place on the Mount of Olives, not at the Garden Tomb or at the Church of the Holy Sepulchre.

Then he wrote another book the Essentials of New Testament Doctrines, much of which we will get into today, not along the book, but with some of the teachings there.

He has another book on tithing. This book is called The Tithing Dilemma. It is against the Law of God for you to tithe today. Tithing was only to the Levites, not to ministers. If you call it a biblical tithe, or if they receive what the ministers call biblical tithes, you are both wrong. And tithing was only on agricultural goods, not on money, not on financial gain through commerce. [Tithing] was only on agricultural and pastoral products, such as animals, and the increase that comes out of the ground. It is fascinating information. It is no-nonsense information. We are not promoting a denomination or an organization.

The last book that he wrote was [about] the location of the Temples in Jerusalem titled The Temples that Jerusalem Forgot. This book is very interesting and fascinating simply because Dr. Martin dug with Professor Benjamin Mazar, and he helped find funding for the original Jerusalem dig at the so-called Temple Mount between 1969 and 1973, for those 5 seasons at the southwest corner of the Haram esh-Sharif.

Later on, Dr. Martin discovered through reading [the Jewish historian] Josephus and the descriptions in [his writings] on how he [Dr. Martin] came to his new conclusions and research. He discovered eventually that the Temples were located above the Gihon Springs, which is a third of a mile south of the Haram esh-Sharif. What this means is that the Jews are fighting [with] the Muslims over the wrong site of the Temple in Jerusalem. The site of the Temple is free and clear, and the Jews could give up [claim] of the Haram esh-Sharif, which is actually the site of the Fortress Antonia.

Dr. Martin also left 400 audiotapes that he had done over the years. I have been using those as a resource and mining them for the information, which is still relevant and useful, because on some [material on] subjects such as the Temple that he wrote in the 1970s are completely changed. There are still nuggets of information even in the old tapes that I have been able to extract and relate to the newest material. He had so much in his head, and there is so much that we are able to get out [from] this information.

The Nature of God

The most important teaching is the nature of God. Who is God? I would like to get into that today.

PJ: That is absolutely wonderful David; let's go for it.

DWS: Basically, what we are talking about is non-doctrinaire. You must believe or you will not be saved, type of material. We do not believe in that. Actually, we teach, through Dr. Martin's understanding (and there are many others around the world), we teach what we believe the Gospel is. The Gospel is not that you must get yourself saved. That is not the Gospel. The Gospel is that you are already saved, and that you just have to realize it. That is why "Gospel" is "good news." It is just an announcement that you are already saved. Everyone is saved, and everyone will be saved, even you Paul and even you James — eventually. Maybe not when Christ returns, that is up to God and you. Whether you can reject it [salvation] now, that is an open question.

Everyone will be saved eventually. Everyone in the audience will be saved and will be part of the Body of Christ and will, literally and figuratively, be seated at the throne alongside and with Christ at the right hand of the Father. In other words, you will see God. This is absolutely set out [in Scripture].² The Catholics have a vague memory of this in their teachings and they call it the beatific vision. So let us get into “what” is God. “What” is applicable because it depends upon which term for God you are using.

Let us start with the apostle Paul in 1 Corinthians 8:6. He says,

“But to us there is but one God, the Father, [out] of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom [the word in Greek is dia, it actually means “through whom”] are all things, and we by him [or through Him].”

• 1 Corinthians 8:6

Who is God the Father? God the Father is YHWH. YHWH is His personal name.³ Jesus Christ can use that name when He is the the agent of the Father. So can another [created] being called “the angel of the Lord.”⁴ That is not the subject for today; the subject is “Who Is God?” So the top individual in creation is God the Father, who is YHWH.

Then there is Christ. Obviously, 1 Corinthians 8:6 indicates that He was a created being. He is a Son of God. Paul continues in 1 Timothy 2:5, one of the last works which he wrote that we have, where he goes on the same theme: “For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus.” (1 Timothy 2:5). By the way the word “man” [both plural and singular], that means human being. “Jesus Christ” and “Christ Jesus” is still a human being even though He is the mediator.

What is His status? That is what the Nicene Creed and the Chalcedon [actually, Chalcedonian] Creed, and all these were trying to work out, because they got away from the [biblical] texts, and they started bringing in Greek philosophy. Let us go to Deuteronomy 6:4, which is what is called the Shema. The Shema starts out in the King James Version as, “Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God is one LORD” (Deuteronomy 6:4). I am going to transpose the transliterations of what the Hebrew has. The transliterations open up the package of Deuteronomy 6:4. What it really says is, “Hear, O Israel: YHWH our Elohim is one YHWH.” That makes sense.

The problem with the King James Version and all English versions is that the word “LORD” when it represents YHWH, you lose sight of what that is, the meaning and the distinction between Lord and God. You mix the two in your own head in the English. But if you keep YHWH and Elohim separate, then you keep the distinction between the plurality of Elohim and the singularity of YHWH. So the whole Shema in Deuteronomy 6:4–5 that the Jews say at the beginning of every time or prayer and at the beginning of every

² Job knew that “though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God” (Job 19:26). Jesus said, “Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God” (Matthew 5:8). See also John 14:7–9. We shall be seated with Christ at the Father’s right hand (John 14:3, 17:21–26; Colossians 3:1; Ephesians 1:20, 2:6). The apostle John tells us we shall be like Christ, 1 John 3:2:

“Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it does not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.”

³ Exodus 3:15

“And God said moreover unto Moses, Thus shall you say unto the children of Israel, YHWH God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me unto you: this [YHWH] is my name for ever [for the olam, age], and this is my memorial unto all generations.”

At God’s command, Moses told Israel what God’s name YHWH meant (Exodus 15:3–5). See also Exodus 6:3 & Psalm 83:18.

time of study is this. The Shema applies to YHWH only. Yet there are other Elohim, which is implied when it says “our Elohim”⁵ that means there are other Elohim. Indeed, there are other Elohim.

PJ: Yes.

DWS: Moses says this, why is he mentioning this at all? Well, it is obvious there are other Elohim, as we shall see. The entire Shema reads like this:

“Hear, O Israel: YHWH our Elohim is one YHWH: And you shall love YHWH your Elohim [1] with all your heart, and [2] with all your soul, and [3] with all your might.”

• Deuteronomy 6:4–5

Christ in Mark 12:29–30 uses this verse to powerful effect in answering a question as to what was the primary commandment. In Deuteronomy 10:17 Moses again there are Elohim other than YHWH. I use the King James Version but I am replacing “YHWH” and “Elohim” [and other terms] where appropriate:

“For YHWH your Elohim⁶ is Elohi of Elohim, and Adonay of Adonim,⁷ a great El, a mighty [El], and a terrible [El],⁸ which regards not persons, nor takes reward.”

• Deuteronomy 10:17

In this verse alone, other Elohim are presumed. “Elohi” is [another] plural form of Elohim, but it is used with a singular verb. The word Elohim occurs some [2,700+] times in the Hebrew. It is almost always used with a singular verb. Okay, does that mean it is a singular subject that we are dealing with? Not necessarily. The words family, army, navy, and company in English it is perfectly correct, grammatically correct to use either a singular or a plural verb. They do this in England. Do they do this in Australia Paul? Do they use plural verbs or singular verbs more loosely than we do in the United States? They do in England.

PJ: Yes, but they do a little bit here in Australia. Yes, we do.

DWS: Like army, navy. You can say, “the army are marching” or “the army is marching,” and both are correct. It is the same in Hebrew with Elohim. In Joshua 22:22, there is the phrase, “the El of Elohim.”⁹ It cannot get more clear. Of course, “El” is the singular of the plural “Elohim.” Once you keep this concept and understanding, and keep it throughout all the reading of the Old Testament, it becomes clear who is being referred to and who is being addressed.

When it says stay away from other Elohim, even there when it talks about plural Elohim of the pagans it still uses the singular verb, because it is a class of beings. It is a class, like a family, a navy, or a company. The term United States is a collective noun. The British author Christopher Hitchens noted this about the use of “United States,” the term is a compound noun. It is a word that President Ronald Reagan in his 1981 presidential inauguration address says, “These United States are confronted with an economic affliction of great proportions.” What Christopher Hitchens noted was that during the Civil War, President Lincoln purposely switched from using a plural verb to singular verb to denote the unity [of the United States]. He did this after the Battle of Gettysburg. He actually notes in an article “Jefferson Versus the Muslim Pirates,” as an aside to his topic in spring of 2007 in the publication City Journal, Hitchens says this:

⁵ “Our Elohim” occurs some 190 times in the Old Testament. The phrase “your Elohim” occurs some 177 times.

⁷ “Adonay of Adonim” means “Lord of Lords.”

⁸ The last two instances of [El] are implied.

⁹ Besides Deuteronomy 10:17, see Psalm 136:2, Daniel 11:36 (in Hebrew) and Daniel 2:47 (in Aramaic). Here is Joshua 22:22:

“The LORD God of gods, the LORD God of gods, he knoweth, and Israel he shall know; if it be in rebellion, or if in transgression against the LORD, (save us not this day,)”

This verse is more clearly rendered:

“YHWH El of Elohim, YHWH El of Elohim, he knows, and Israel he shall know; if it be in rebellion, or if in transgression against YHWH, (save us not this day,)”

“President Madison’s words on this occasion could scarcely be bettered: ‘It is a settled policy of America, ... war is better than tribute. The United States, while they wish [plural pronoun, singular verb] for war with no nation, [they] will buy peace with none.’

Then Hitchens comments: “The expression ‘the United States is’ [as a singular] did not come into usage until after Gettysburg.”¹⁰ Once Lincoln started using the singular [verb] with “the United States,” everybody started to use it as a singular rather than as a plural.

So Elohim is the same way. It can take a plural verb or a singular verb. It does so. But even when it [the verb] is singular, you still have the associative concept of plurality, even when a singular verb is used. Going back, you have a number of divine names, divine terms in the Scripture and you have to keep them understood in context. YHWH is always singular in form — always in the 1,000 times or more that it is used. He, God the Father, is the El of Elohim, as we noted in Joshua 22:22.

The term El is singular form. The word Eloah is also singular in form, but it is used only in [Hebrew] poetry. Don’t ask me why, I do not know. Why is Eloah used, and El used in other situations? I do not know. Eloah may be a more formal poetic term that is used in songs, like in an opera, and they did forms of opera in presentations during the feast days that the Jews would have.¹¹

Elohi is plural in form, although it is far and away most often used singularly. Elohi is a different plural form. Then Elim is plural in form, but it appears to be a contraction of Elohim. Elohim notoriously and purposefully takes singular verbs almost always, with few exceptions. This is what I am looking to put forth, almost ad nauseam. Elohim communicates plurality even when it is used singularly. God had other words that He could have used. He had two singular terms, El and Eloah, and they occur — ~~as a matter of fact in Bullinger’s Companion Bible, he lists the terms in the Sopherim, which are changes, and most of them change YHWH back to Elohim or to El.~~¹² Why the scribes did that, I do not know, unless they were looking to avoid any hint of God being plural.

Of course, the Talmud and the oldest Hebrew manuscripts that we have, other than the Dead Sea Scrolls and the Septuagint, both were [produced beginning] in the 2nd century BC, both of them must have had access to older manuscripts. The Septuagint was translated from a Hebrew original during that same period. Other than [these] the oldest Hebrew manuscripts date from the [4th] century AD, hundreds of years [later].¹³ The texts may have been tampered with, although I do not like to consider that because Paul says the Jews were given the texts of Scripture to preserve [them].¹⁴

Most often in the New Testament, you have the Greek translated directly from the Septuagint and not from the Hebrew. This is well known to scholars. That is, except the Book of Hebrews, the author of Hebrews seems to use his own translation.

So God is YHWH. Then there is a subset of other gods, small “g” you might say. This includes angels. This includes the Sons of God, and this includes the first creation of God which is THE Son of God, Jesus

¹² I misspoke here. See E.W. Bullinger’s Appendix 32, “The 134 Passages where the Sopherim Altered ‘Jehovah’ to ‘Adoni’.”

“What advantage then has the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision? Much every way: chiefly, because that unto them [the Jews] were committed the oracles of God.”

In the time of Paul, many were corrupting the Scriptures, as Paul says in 2 Corinthians 2:17:

“For we are not as MANY, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.”

Christ. Through Him, as we read in 1 Corinthians 8:6, and Colossians chapter 1, Philippians chapter 2, and in Hebrews chapter 1, and in Revelation, He [God the Father, YHWH] first created Christ, and then everything else was created through Him.

There is no Trinity. Let me make that clear. This is why — and I am telling you, the works of Dr. Ernest Martin have been blackballed in Christian bookstores around the world, because he was not trinitarian, because Scripture is not trinitarian. I'm sorry; you guys kept trying to break in.

PJ: It was lovely.

Bible Prophecy

JW: Yeah, I was wondering about Bible prophecy. What does Bible prophecy say about what's going to happen in the world. I am kind of familiar, but what is going to happen in the world according to Bible prophecy?

DWS: At what stage?

JW: The final stages, and what are their timetables.

DWS: In the Scripture there is the Hebrew word olam and olamim, which is plural. Olam means “an age.” It can be short, it can be long, but it has a beginning and an end. God created “the ages” In Greek it is called “the eons.” In Hebrews 1:2, it says the Son created “the eons.” Let me bring that up and quote it exactly.

“God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spoke in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, Has in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he has appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds [eons].”

• Hebrews 1:1–2

In the King James Version, it says “worlds.” Eons have to do with time. They do not have to do with place, so olam [in Hebrew] is an exact parallel to the Greek eon and eons. So, Christ created the eons. To your specific point about prophecy, we are about to depart from one eon and enter another [eon] when Christ returns, so that is why I asked you for a little more specificity. What timeframe are you talking about?

Leading up to when Christ returns, I think we are a long way off. At least 50 to 70 years. It might not occur until almost 2098. I am not supposed to set dates, but if you go far enough ahead in the future, there is too much that has to happen. The city of Babylon has to be rebuilt and it has to become a cultural and a financial power and center of the world.

The King of the South has to form up [his kingdom], and it appears like it will encompass Libya, the Sudan, Ethiopia, and most of North Africa. The King of the South has to war against the King of the North who comes against the King of the South, and takes his treasures, as it says in Daniel. The only treasure that Egypt has at the moment, who is obviously the King of the South, everyone agrees with that, and of course King of the South means south of Israel. It could include portions of Saudi Arabia at the present also. The only treasure that they have — is sand. They are beginning to discover oil, as is everyone else, including Israel, both offshore and inland. If he [the King of the South] takes over Libya, they will have oil.

What treasures do they have? Mummies? Pyramids? You cannot take those away with you. So, what is it? It appears to be gold and silver of some kind, and other treasures unspecified, maybe things that haven't even been invented yet. But, you have multiple generations, at least three, regarding the Kings of the South. At least one of those generations [is born] and grows to adulthood, so you have at least 20+ years right there. One of the daughters of the King of the South —

I had one fellow tell me, oh, they could be alive now, and we wouldn't know it. That is nice, but what good is the prophecy then, if the believers cannot even identify who the players are? That is the purpose of prophecy is so those who are believers will be able to identify what's going on and be able to check them [events] off a checklist as the sequence of events.

I am not worried about dates so much as a sequence of [prophetic] events. [What is important are]: the sequence of events of the Prince of the South, the sequence of the Prince of the North, the sequence of Babylon, the sequence of the 10 Kings which are [told to us] in Psalm 83 according to Dr. Martin's research. The 10 Kings are not Europe or the United States, and Australia, and Japan, and various nations around the world. The 10 Kings have a relationship to the country of Israel, to the land of Israel.

Lo and behold, what do we have, we have the Arab Spring. If you want a prophecy that seems to be indicated in Scripture, it is that Lebanon will break up, Syria will break up, Jordan will break up, and the Palestinian state will form up with solidity and will actually gain three cities that are north of the Gaza Strip, Askelon [alternatively spelled Ashkelon] being one of them.¹⁵ This [Psalm 83] will be apparently a snapshot of what the situation will be before Christ returns.

There has to be world prosperity for the treasures in Egypt [the realm of the King of the South] to build up, and for the King of the North to [also] build a financial and a military empire, and there probably will be, Dr. Martin thought, no more massive land battles and tank battles any more. There will be, until the battle following the gathering of the nations at Armageddon [the valley of Jezreel, Har Megiddo], there will be several battles in that [military campaign]. Dr. Martin has written extensively on this, that you can follow the progress of the armies of the King of the North. Part goes east of the Dead Sea and part goes west of the Dead Sea toward Jerusalem. It lists the towns they will progress through, and what they will do in these towns, and what they will do to Israel.¹⁶

Another thing is that Israel will have a civil war at some time in the future. It will be bloody. It will probably be the Israelites against the Jews. What the distinction is between an Israelite and a Jew right now is — I have no idea. It is very difficult. Dr. Martin thought perhaps that, and I agree with him, that it was the distinction between the Shephardic and the Ashkenazi Jews. The Ashkenazi are the [Israelites] and the Shephardics are [of Judah].¹⁷ It is not some British-Israel fantasy of the Worldwide Church of God and other groups.

The Mark of the Beast and Antichrist

JW: In Obamacare there is supposed to be a microchip that [will] be implanted in every American. It is like their timetable has really accelerated, and we are going to take the Mark of the Beast sooner. Could you talk about Bible prophecy and the Mark of the Beast and maybe what the timetable is there by yourself?

DWS: Dr. Martin understood, and I agree with him on this too (I agree with him a lot, not just because I am promoting his work), but because I see a lot of logic and wisdom and biblical understanding in what he says. The Mark of the Beast is the requirement that the world will obey the Law of God. That sounds strange, but the only mention in Scripture that you see of the Law being related to the hand or the wrist and the forehead is in relationship to the Law of God.

The Antichrist has to con the world into believing that he is the Messiah. Of course, Christ IS the Messiah, which is another hobbyhorse that I have. When we say Jesus Christ, "Christ" is not His last name. That means "Messiah" in Greek, technically or precisely it means "Anointed" but it was used instead of Meshiach. Whenever you see the word Christ, think Meshiach [or Messiah]. I am not one of those who believes that all those terms should be changed in the translation. When you start [changing] personal names it gets ridiculous, you know, Yochanan for John, Yeshua or Yeheshua for Jesus. The Greek Septuagint had

¹⁵ The other two cities besides Askelon will be Gaza and Ashdod. See Dr. Martin's article, "The Prophesied State of Palestine."

¹⁷ This is discussed in "The Land of Israel in Prophecy" where this is clarified, and the civil war to come is mentioned in Zechariah chapter 10. The two groups later reconcile and cooperate in Zechariah chapter 11. This issue is also discussed briefly in Dr. Martin's article "Who Are the Northern Ten Tribes of Israel Today?"

Iesous for Joshua [Jesus]. If it was good enough for them [the authors] to use hundreds of time in the New Testament, it is good enough for me.¹⁸

Back to the Mark of the Beast. The Mark of the Beast is the Law [of Moses] that the false messiah will impose as the Messiah on the world because that will be what Christ will do for a very short period of time when He returns. But it will be done on a national basis. When the antichrist will impose it on a neighborhood basis [among nations], a lot of this stuff that we have now being proposed by DARPA,¹⁹ the trans-humanism concepts, and the cataloging and the imprinting and the tagging of people like we do [with] cattle and dogs, that might all go away. It might continue up to a point, but there will be a limit on that because I see the conspiracies as being totally focused on setting up for the antichrist. I don't see them as being ends in themselves. I do not see a one-world government before the antichrist comes on the scene.

JW: The antichrist is already here though, that is the thing.

DWS: In terms of, yes, there always has been an antichrist [“,,, even now are there many antichrists,” 1 John 2:18].

JW: The thing this here is just that when is he [the antichrist] going to reveal himself in his actual form, or is he going to veil himself as an angel of light.

DWS: My understanding is that Satan will possess him after he [the antichrist] is killed. Until that time, he will be his own person. He will be killed, and I don't know if you want to call it resurrection, reincarnation, or reanimation, but it will appear like he's been resurrected, but he will be reanimated, just like the beast in the Temple, which is obviously [that] one of the cherubim figures will suddenly be animated.²⁰

Immortal Soul?

PJ: If I can interrupt for a moment, there is a YouTube video, a 1940 Soviet Union experiment. In the YouTube video you see footage where they are reanimating dead bodies of dogs. It works. Life is in the blood. Once the blood, you know life is in the blood [Leviticus 17:11, 14], into their body through a machine, that the dog could actually get reanimated back to consciousness. They actually had the dog's head on a table, and once they started pumping the blood back in, just the head, with tubes, and the person is getting a hammer, the dogs ears could hear, and they put light in its eyes. They put a little drip on its nose and it was dripping it. It was just the creepiest thing, David and James, that I have ever seen.

DWS: Death is a process. Death does not occur all at once. Death is a process. Eventually the spirit leaves the body. The soul is composed of a union of body and spirit. When the spirit leaves, the body dissolves and the soul ceases to exist. We do not have an immortal soul. That is a shock to many Christians, and to many occultists and New Age people too. We simply don't, but it doesn't mean that death occurs instantaneously.

They have had people now who have fallen into deep freeze under really cold water in a lake, and the latest one is that a person has been revived after 45 minutes without a heartbeat.

¹⁸ The Septuagint (the LXX), translated by Jews in Alexandria from Hebrew to Greek in the Book of Joshua translated the name Joshua as Iesous. Jesus name meant “Joshua” but “Jesus” is a perfectly good translation for the Hebrew. Why? Because the writers of the New Testament used the Greek term Iesous, not the transliterated Hebrew Yeshua which they could have done. While the King James Version has “Jesus” in Hebrews 4:8, the context and most all translations recognize that Joshua, the successor of Moses is intended. The Greek word used is Iesous. Therefore Joshua = Jesus.

¹⁹ See the Wikipedia article “DARPA” for a quick primer on this organization:

“The Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency (DARPA) is an agency of the United States Department of Defense responsible for the development of new technologies for use by the military. The Nature of Death

JW: What happens when we die then? Do we go to heaven? Do we get reincarnated? What goes on, in your opinion?

DWS: When we die, we cease to exist, but God obviously has a memory of us. The only eternal beings that are extant in the universe that I am sure of are God the Father and NOW Christ. But remember Christ died and He ceased to exist. He did not go off and pray to the spirits in Hades or in Tartaroo for three days and three nights. He did that after his resurrection.²¹ It is clear from Peter's account that He did that after He was raised from the dead.

The prime contractor of creation ceased to exist when He died. He ceased to exist for three days and three nights. Otherwise, death is just another form of life, a disembodied form of life.

JW: I just don't understand. Do we go to heaven, do we go to hell, or do we just cease to exist altogether, and then that is it? Is that what you are saying?

DWS: We cease to exist until we are resurrected. Eventually everyone will be resurrected. When you are resurrected as a spirit being, as when Christ returns for example, and when that occurs you will be resurrected to the flesh first [1 Corinthians 15:35–58]. This is very clear in 1 Corinthians chapter 15 and in Thessalonians where it talks about the resurrection [1 Thessalonians chapter 4]. You will first have a physical body and then a cloak of a spiritual body will be put around you, probably by an angelic being, and your flesh will drop off and you will have spiritual flesh.

Jesus Christ now has a body of flesh and bone,²² but He does not have blood. The Holy Spirit of God courses through His body. He can become physical or walk through walls as He did in [John chapter 20] at will. Spirit beings can do that, but they can do that with difficulty. They need to be energized by the life of blood, the evil spirits. The angelics can come and go as they please if they are given the power from God to do so.

Yes, human beings are not the only beings that shall die. All intelligent beings will die. Many do not exactly look forward to that. Human beings are the only ones who have flesh now. When Christ was born of Mary, He was “enfleshed” [John 1:13–14, 3:6, 6:63], that is a technical term. He had the likeness of son's flesh but He never sinned.²³

PJ: That's right.

JW: This doesn't make sense because I have had experiences that I have had cash offers for my soul, so this is — large [offers], we're talking extremely large cash offers for my soul.

DWS: Yes, but they had no right; that belongs to God. That does not belong to [them], it doesn't even belong to you. Every breath you take and every beat of your heart is according to God's will —.

JW: But you said we don't have an immortal soul, that's what you said. I just don't understand.

DWS: And you don't believe it. The people who would have told you that were lying to you.

JW: I don't think so, you know —

²¹ This connects 1 Peter 3:19 where Jesus preached (verse 18, after His resurrection) to the spirits in prison (tartaroo) spoken of in 2 Peter 2:4.

²² Luke 24:39-40:

“Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit has not flesh and bones, as you see me have. And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hands and his feet.”

Ephesians 5:30: “For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.”

²³ He was without sin (John 8:7; Hebrews 4:15, 9:28). He was flesh, but His flesh was not sinful through Adam. Romans 8:3:

“For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh.”

DWS: Disembodied spirits they lie to these people all the time, and these people, they perpetuate the lie. The whole concept of Lucifer does not exist in Scripture.²⁴ “Lucifer” is a Latin term that was incorporated into the King James Version from the [Latin] Vulgate. There is no relationship between that being in Isaiah chapter 14 and Satan. Satan is identified in Revelation chapter 12 as the serpent, referring to Genesis, which means “shining being” by the way in the Hebrew, nachash. That is what the “serpent” in the Garden [of Eden] meant.

“And the great [1] dragon was cast out, that [2] old serpent, called [3] the Devil, and [4] Satan, which deceives the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.”

• Revelation 12:9

He’s not a cherub. There is no serpentine concept in cherubim at all. There are eagles, bulls, —

The New World Order

JW: What are your thoughts on the New World Order?

DWS: I think it is all being set up for the purpose of the antichrist. But you have the King of the South versus the King of the North. The beast individual will be the third, actually the second King of the North. Will they be part of the New World Order? They will be fighting each other.

My concept of the conspiracies, and we can argue this with you and Fritz Springmeyer another time, my idea of the conspiracies is that it is like the Mafia in Chicago. They cooperate on prostitution on the South Side, and they go to bloody war on drugs on the North Side. That is what the conspiracies do. There are multiple conspiracies, and they are all in contact with spirit beings at the top levels, including governments in many cases.

How many presidents have said that they felt they were divinely led to be president. Prime Minister Begin [of Israel, 1977–83] actually expressed this publically. Begin said he was fulfilling biblical prophecy by strengthening and defending Israel. This is common because it is such a scramble to get to the top, climbing over all your other associates and other people, that to reach the top you automatically feel that you are inspired by God or at least some spiritual source misidentified as God, because they communicate with them.

JW: What would you say are the timelines of the New World Order are, because they said it was 2015, 2020?

DWS: Well, in the 1970s I read this stuff, this material in the 1970s and they were to be done by the year 2000. They are way behind schedule. There are certain cycles of time that appear to be, whether it is occult prophecy or others. Look at the prophecies of Edgar Cayce. They are all garbage. None of them happened.

Nostradamus is getting late. It no longer seems at present, it did for a while where one of the major prophecies of Nostradamus was that Islam was going to invade Europe. That is not going to happen. If Egypt and the King of the North get wealthy all those people [the Muslims in Europe] and Europe will be just the industrial power. The United States, Europe, and Japan will supply the rest of the world.

If you go over there [to the Middle East], there is so much energy among all the populations over there. I am talking energy for commerce. If they begin to cooperate, which they will, and come to an accommodation with Israel, things will be amazing. Then things will split [into factions of] north and south, you know King of the North and King of the South, and all this is going to take time.

Most all prophecy must first be viewed from the viewpoint of Israel and the surrounding nations — not New York, not Tokyo, and not London, in spite of what they think, in spite of what the spirits who run these different organizations and countries think. We can disagree about that. How much does the audience know about the background?

JW: They know a ton. I was at the highest levels of the New World Order, but I defected. You know, their timetables seem a lot closer to now —

DWS: They are still pushing. I have no doubt they are pushing [their agendas], but their timetable has been thwarted many times just like it was when the messenger of Adam Weishaupt was struck by lightning. There are other forces at work here, and they must be frustrated as all get-out. Things don't go their way necessarily. World War II was supposed to be a big deal in which the Nazis were supposed to exhaust Stalin and it did not work out that way. The New World Order was supposed to take over then. Then they shifted to the year 2000.²⁵

PJ: Yes. What about Mystery Babylon? That is Iraq, isn't it?

DWS: No.

PJ: Wasn't Saddam Hussein? —

DWS: You have to distinguish between Mystery Babylon, which is Jerusalem, and Babylon the Great, which will arise as a financial center in the future. Iran has to convert to become friends with Israel. How that is going to happen I cannot imagine, looking forward from the present situation.

There will be an individual called a Cyrus, and that individual and that whole story has to play out [before Christ returns]. Cyrus will help rebuild Jerusalem after the destruction, after Christ returns, but he will be alive beforehand.

JW: Let us just say that Christ is already returned, because some people believe He is already walking on the earth right now. What would happen then if He were already here?

DWS: He has not appeared in terms of the way He says He will return to the Mount of Olives, has He [Mark 13:24–30; Acts chapter 1, referring to Zechariah 14:3–5]?

JW: No. I have heard different, that's the thing. Let's talk about the nuts and bolts. What is the government doing right now to try and accelerate the New World Order, and to accelerate the Bible prophecy that is told in Revelations.

DWS: I think they are just trying to get hold of the population. They do not want to suppress the population of the United States too much because it is the engine that essentially runs the world. They don't have quite the control of middle class of the United States. Are they willing to destroy the economy? Yes, they are willing to do so. I don't think they will be allowed to do so. Will they try it? Yes, I believe they might, but they are not stupid. They want to have all their toys also. A lot of those toys go away if the middle class goes away in the United States. The middle class of Japan and Taiwan and Singapore and Hong Kong and Germany, they cannot make up for what the middle class of the United States does.

PJ: David, can I interrupt? What is going right now in America where they are talking about that America is going to default, the money or whatever?

DWS: I don't know. I do not have any biblical information on that. I do know that if you read the Book of Revelation there will be gold and silver, but you could also make the case that the gold and silver talked about at the destruction of Babylon will only relate to those who are wealthy. I tell you that slavery will come back, and many of the Jews will be enslaved, which is hard to believe.²⁶ When will that all happen? That will probably happen when the antichrist is in play.

²⁵ Or, so students of conspiracies have told us.

²⁶ Revelation 18:11–13 talks about the reaction to the destruction of Babylon in Iraq:

“And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buys their merchandise any more: The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious

PJ: I am so glad that we won't be alive by the time it gets really bad. I am just glad about that.

DWS: It also talks in the Book of Revelation about an army of 200 million that will not come across the Euphrates; it will come OUT of the Euphrates.²⁷ What does that mean? Those are not human beings. Those are not human beings at all. Those are spirit beings who become physical and are riding 200 million other spirit beings that are not animals. If they become physical. Perhaps you are aware of this. Any spirit being that becomes physical can be killed. Read Psalm 82. The Sons of God are given a death sentence by THE El, which is YHWH. Psalm 82 says you are Sons of the Most High, and you shall die like men. They are not humans, the Sons of God, and they are not angels. They are a separate class.

The Sons of God and Conspiracies

If you want to talk about conspiracies, the Sons of God were the “olden gods” and a death sentence was put upon them in Psalm 82, a psalm of David.²⁸ They went away in the time of Jeremiah, in my opinion. I cannot prove this yet, that the death sentence was given as a judgment of what is called a ri'b lawsuit in Hebrew. Psalm 82 is the judgment phase of this lawsuit, and condemnation is given on the Sons of God. Jesus was THE Son of God and the definite article is important there because He is THE Son of God among others. The Sons of God in Job 38:7 shouted for joy when the foundation of the earth was laid. Later they came down and mated with the daughters of men (Genesis 6:2, 4), both before and after the flood. These are the real spiritual rulers, not necessarily Shaitan [Hebrew for], Satan.

JW: Could you talk about how it relates to today and what is going on today, and what the Bible prophecy is going on today for the listeners.

DWS: As in the days of Noah, so shall it be, Jesus says in Matthew 24, before the coming of the Son of Man, who is Christ referring to Himself (Matthew 24:37–39; Luke 26:26–27). Things are going to be normal, there will be eating and drinking and marrying and giving in marriage. The marrying and giving in marriage refers back to Noah's time and the only reference of marriage and giving in marriage [for mankind] has to do with Sons of God and the daughters of men. This is going on today, as you very well know.

JW: Okay.

DWS: It is going on with partially the abductees of the UFOs, but it also going on in rituals around the world. These are the big boys, the Beni ha-Elohim, the Sons of God.

JW: What goes on in these rituals?

DWS: I am not going to go on in the rituals because I do know that the entities, let's call them entities. Some are Sons of God, some are angelics. They become physical. I have spoken with several ritual abuse victims, survivors, obviously not victims of murder, but survivors who have seen them become physical. They have shaken hands with these entities when they have become physical. There are too many people that have done that, as well as interactions with these entities [reportedly] on “spacecraft.”²⁹ Not all of them wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble, And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men.”

²⁸ These Sons of God are part of the principalities and powers the apostle Paul talks about in Romans 8:38; Ephesians 3:10, 6:12; Colossians 1:16, 2:15. Some were no doubt killed as a result of Psalm 82. Who knows how many, if any, are left alive. If some are still alive they may still have great sovereignty and power. Christ has spoiled them (Colossians 2:15), but not yet taken their power. See my article “Who Are the Nephilim?” where the Sons of God are discussed.

²⁹ Or, this is what the witnesses experience and are told. They experience something profound, whether they are interpreting their sights, sounds, tastes, and touch properly, cannot be determined. Those who experience visions in the Bible such as Isaiah, Ezekiel, and John in Revelations have ALL of their senses involved in their experiences, yet they are having visions. Evil spirits are government abductions. I believe the government does some of that. By the way, how is the lovely United States base in Australia there? Where is that?

PJ: Pine Gap.

DWS: Pine Gap, yeah. Any new information on that lately?

PJ: No, no. I have no idea, David.

DWS: You have Pine Gap. You have Diego Garcia. Is Pine Gap built on a vortex of some kind?³⁰

PJ: I don't know.

DWS: These entities interact all the time, just as they interacted in the days of the pagan temples, for goodness sake. These ancient peoples were not stupid. They did things for the gods, and the gods reciprocated, not just with [good] crops and things, but they appeared because they wanted to appear. During the time of Jeremiah the olden gods went away and some were killed. There are verses in the Bible that I am still trying to figure out and understand where it talks about the idols being captured along with the Elohim. What does that mean? Is there a distinction between the idols, the gold and silver and woodcarvings, and the Elohim? There might be. They were captured. How can they be captured? It is because if they are in the physical they cannot only be killed, they can be captured, held prisoner. Some of these entities are being held by the governments. Some of these entities are vessels for possession. They are merely containers with a minimal intelligence, and they become containers for lying spirits.³¹

JW: I don't understand this. You say once we die we don't go on. That does not match up with any Christian or any Bible prophecy. Do you understand what I am saying? No, it doesn't. That is not true. You know, Yaheshua [Jesus] says I give you eternal life if you believe in Me.

DWS: Right, but that is an assumption that the word "eternal" actually is in Scripture. It is not. It is eonian life. [Scripture] says you will become immortal [after a spiritual resurrection], but [the word] eternity does not occur in Scripture. The eons have a beginning and an end. Then after that, you are still immortal, but God has something else in mind [Isaiah 64:4; 1 Corinthians 2:9]. The eons only —

JW: Tell me what you think happens after you die.

DWS: I told you. You cease to exist until the resurrection so that when you die, your last moment as you try to take the last breath and you can't, assuming you're conscious, and you die. Your next conscious moment is your breathing again. Okay? That might be one thousand, it might be five, six thousand years later for Adam [the first man], but there is no consciousness of time before then and after then.³² It says explicitly in the Old Testament in Ecclesiastes, "the dead know nothing" (Ecclesiastes 9:5).³³ They are unconscious. They cannot praise God [Psalm 115:17].

David Sielaff, January 2014

can do much the same.

³⁰ I asked Paul because he lives in Australia and I have heard about this American space tracking facility, but I have no direct information about any sort of energy vortex there. Pine Gap is in the center of Australia. Google "Pine Gap" for several intriguing websites (and many which are not so interesting).

³¹ People who report such things tell of robotic-like behavior by these entities, yet they appear to be real and fleshly. That being said, there may be several other explanations. Whatever the case, someone is pushing a widespread agenda that supposedly deals with "aliens" from space. It is more sophisticated than that.

³² I meant, there is no consciousness after you die and before you are resurrected. "Reincarnation" is not biblical and does not exist, although it does describe the situation of spirits who go from person to person for possession.

³³ Ecclesiastes 9:5–6:

"For the living know that they shall die: but the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward [at that time]; for the memory of them [those who died] is forgotten. Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is now perished; neither have they any more a portion [reward] for ever [olam, for the age] in any thing that is done under the sun."
