

Associates for Scriptural Knowledge • P.O. Box 25000, Portland, OR 97298-0990 USA
 © ASK, February 2014 • All rights reserved • Number 2/14

Telephone: 503 292 4352

• Internet: www.askelm.com •

E-Mail: askoffice@askelm.com

Oz Internet Radio Show, Part 2

by David Sielaff, February 2014

Read the accompanying Newsletter for February 2014

Listen to the MP3 of Oz Internet Radio Show, “David Sielaff Interview, Part 2,” while you read along.¹

This is Part 2 of a transcript of an October 4, 2013 live internet radio broadcast hosted by Paul Jamieson (PJ) originating from Australia.² His cohost was James Russell Weston (JW) from California. Paul gave permission to transcribe and publish the show, link an MP3 copy online. You can listen while you read Part 2. The topics generated are erratic, beginning with the nature of death, who is Christ, and could Christ be on earth today. The dialogue continues from there. The first four statements are repeated from Part 1. The footnotes are mine, of course.

The Nature of Death

JW: I don’t understand this. You say that once we die, we don’t go on. That does not match up with any Christian or any Bible prophecy. Do you understand what I am saying? No, it doesn’t. That is not true. You know, Yaheshua [Jesus]³ says I give you eternal life if you believe in Me.

DWS: Right, but that is an assumption that the word “eternal” actually is in Scripture. It is not. It is eonian life. [Scripture] says you will become immortal [after a spiritual resurrection], but [the word] eternity does not occur in Scripture. The eons have a beginning and an end. Then after that [after the eons are completed], you are still immortal, but God has something else in mind [for us, Isaiah 64:4; 1 Corinthians 2:9]. The eons only —

JW: Tell me what you think happens after you die — what you think happens after you die?

DWS: I told you. You cease to exist until the resurrection, so that when you die, your last moment as you try to take the last breath and you can’t (assuming you’re conscious), and you die. Your next conscious moment is your breathing again. Okay? That might be one thousand, it might be five, six thousand years later for Adam [the first man], if Adam is resurrected, but there is no consciousness of time before then and after then.⁴ It says explicitly in the Old Testament in Ecclesiastes, “the dead know nothing” (Ecclesiastes 9:5–6).⁵ They are unconscious. They cannot praise God [Psalm 115:17]. If they were conscious, they could praise God.

¹ This large audio file, may take a few seconds to load for your media player.

² “Oz Internet Radio Show, Part 1” dealt with the nature of God, Bible prophecy and the Kings of the North & South, the mark of the beast and the antichrist, immortal soul and the nature of death, New World Order, as well as Sons of God and conspiracies.

³ Words in brackets [] are my additions to add clarity and context the spoken words.

It says in Acts chapter 2 at Pentecost, Peter says this in the first words he says, when the Holy Spirit has tongues of fire above their [the apostles’] heads, David “is both dead and buried and his tomb [sepulcher] is still with us unto this day” [Acts 2:29] and he has “not ascended into heaven” [Acts 2:34]. This is after Pentecost, after Christ has been resurrected [and after Christ has ascended into heaven]. He [King David] is still dead.⁶

PJ: Yes, thank you. It is a bit like an operation, you know like when a doctor puts the oxygen mask on and says count down from 10 and before you know it, you have awoken and you are not even aware you have fallen asleep. The next thing you know is that you’re [awake] after the operation. It would be like that, wouldn’t it David?

DWS: Yes, pretty much, almost exactly. That was one of the analogies Dr. Martin used. This applies to everybody. Every saint of God in the Old Testament and the New Testament are still dead, and they will be dead until Christ raises them up on the last day. This is just the saints. Then comes the millennium. Then comes the great white throne judgment after the millennium [Revelation 20:4–6]. The great white throne judgment is when the mass of humanity will be raised to the physical [life] and they will be taught for the first time [about] the plan of God [Revelation 20:11–13].

JW: This doesn’t make sense. This doesn’t make any sense. This goes against all, everything I have heard, everything I have researched. I don’t — what do you base this on?

DWS: Just the straightforward reading of the Old and the New Testament.

JW: If you believe in Yaheshua [Jesus], that Christ died for our sins, it doesn’t say anything about waiting for Him to come and everything like that.

DWS: What does Paul equate death with? Sleep.⁷ Are you conscious when you sleep? No, you are unconscious. Some people dream and some people have lucid dreams, but that is not what Paul meant. He meant the common concept of sleep in an area [of the world] where people worked hard every day in physical labor. Your sleep is pretty deep. I don’t want to get into dreams, but I think dreams are your getting rid of [throwing out] the emotional garbage and baggage of the day or that you have accumulated through stress [in your life].

JW: Can you talk about the rituals? The listeners want to hear. What exactly goes on in these rituals that you talk of? You say you have [spoken] to people [that] have been through ritual abuse. What exactly goes on in these rituals?

DWS: Well, there are often — I don’t want to go into too much detail, what is the point. I am here to ⁴ I meant, there is no consciousness after you die and before you are resurrected. “Reincarnation” is not biblical and does not exist, although it does describe the situation of spirits who go from person to person for possession.

⁵ Ecclesiastes 9:5–6:

“For the living know that they shall die: but the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward [at that time]; for the memory of them [those who died] is forgotten. Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is now perished; neither have they any more a portion [reward] for ever [olam, for the age] in any thing that is done under the sun.”

⁶ See Chapter 16, “Resurrections from the Dead” from Dr. Ernest Martin’s book, Essentials of New Testament Doctrine to understand the various resurrections from the dead and when they occur.

⁷ Paul equated death with sleep in 1 Corinthians 11:30, 15:6, 17–23, 51–52; 1 Thessalonians 4:13–18, 5:6–7, 10. Jesus says the same in Matthew 27:52 and John 11:11–13, and so does Peter in 2 Peter 3:4. In the Old Testament, during and after the time of King David, the phrase “slept with his fathers” is common in the books of Kings and Chronicles, for example in 1 Kings 2:10.

talk about the Scriptures, not what I have learned from eyewitnesses.

JW: Yeah, but everything you are saying in the Scriptures does not go along with the accepted teachings of what the Scriptures are in the Old and the New Testament. The New Testament said that if you believe in Yaheshua you will have eternal life.

DWS: Yes, it actually says eonian life. If you read the Scriptures and check the Greek word it says eonian life, and eonian life means “for the eons.” Read 1 Corinthians 15:26–28. It says that at the end Christ will give up the Kingdom to the Father, and God the Father will be all and in all. We will still be individuals as Christ will be. Everyone will be saved.

Your question is about what is the process of getting to that end? Do you believe that everyone will be saved? There is no hell. Hell is a King James word for hades.⁸ In the time of the King James [Version], hell meant the grave in most of the cases [in the New Testament]. Hades, that’s what that means. Hades is the Greek abode of the dead and the shades, but Dante and Milton converted that, and Catholic theologians, into an eternal hell situation. Dante and Milton elaborated on that. This is perpetuated by the lying spirits.

The rituals that go on, read [Aleister] Crowley for goodness sake.⁹ Blood —

JW: Are you talking about satanic rituals, is this the kind of rituals you are talking about?

DWS: Satanic and magic rituals. I imagine the higher ups do not need to use magic.

JW: We want to know, what goes on in these rituals?

DWS: You can read about it in the Old Testament. There is some type of blood letting —

JW: You are on the show to tell us. What goes on in these rituals?

PJ: James, James, let the guest speak!

DWS: What goes on in the rituals is there is a blood sacrifice. Sometimes it is animals. Sometimes it is humans, and children work best. This is exactly, almost exactly the words of Aleister Crowley. And if you don’t think he was keyed into things — and yes, he was a liar, and a charlatan, and a jokester, and all this other stuff, read Calling Drawing Down the Moon.¹⁰ Read any of the serious books [on ritual magic].

JW: So you say there are satanic forces that run the world?

DWS: [Yes.] This is Satan’s world at present, yes. God does and can intervene at any moment. Everything is going according to His plan. Just like in the Book of Job, Satan was on a leash. He could only do

⁸ Read Dr. Martin’s article “The Biblical Teaching of Hell” for a simple explanation of the concept and where three Greek terms are translated in the King James Version as “hell.”

⁹ Aleister Crowley (d. 1947) was an English occultist, magician, and self-identified satanist. In his 1929 book, Magick in Theory and Practice, he wrote:

“The blood is the life. ... For the highest spiritual working one must accordingly choose that victim which contains the greatest and purest force. A male child of perfect innocence and high intelligence is the most satisfactory and suitable victim. ... But the bloody sacrifice, though more dangerous, is more efficacious; and for nearly all purposes human sacrifice is the best.”

The blood being intimately related to the life of an animal or a person is a reflection of Genesis 9:4; Leviticus 17:11, 14; and Deuteronomy 12:23. Whether Crowley was writing in jest or not (and who really cares), he wrote what was true because the Bible confirms his words. In fact, the people of Judah completely misunderstood what God required in the law. There are several more verses regarding this subject than Psalm 106:35–38, written by King David who wrote about Israel’s past after entering the Promised Land:

“But were mingled among the heathen, and learned their works. And they served their idols: which were a snare unto them. Yea, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto devils [demons], And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan: and the land was polluted with blood.”

¹⁰ I misspoke the title of the book. See “Drawing Down the Moon” (Wikipedia article). Margot Adler’s, Drawing Down the Moon: Witches, Druids, Goddess-Worshippers, and Other Pagans in America Today, originally published in 1979, has gone through several editions.

what God allowed him to do. The same today. Satan can only do what God allows him to do.

I will also tell you that before the Second Coming and before the New World Order comes, and before the antichrist rises, there will be a conversion of the world to most of the truth of Scripture. That is this stuff that I am telling you today. And most of the [vulgarity deleted], the immortal soul, the trinity doctrine, and the hell doctrine will go away, because the antichrist will profess 95 to 99 percent truth. It is that other one percent that will be the poison. He will work in conjunction with the beni ha-Elohim [Sons of God, Genesis 6:1–4, and elsewhere in Scripture], the ones that are still alive and got off planet (if that’s what they did), and the angelics, and Satan, and Moloch (who is the cherub [of Ezekiel 28]), and all the other [evil] beings.

Our job ... [after our spiritual resurrection after Christ returns] there will be a distinction between the Old Testament saints, the New Covenant saints, and those of what is called “The Mystery.” The Old and New Covenant saints will pretty much operate on earth. “The Mystery” saints will go to the celestials, to the sovereignties [in the heavens]. By the way, they are all pretty much focused on the earth now because this is where things are happening.

Time is getting short on a cosmic scale, and they are starting to send observers and they are starting to send those who want to get involved because their sovereignty that they were given by God [will soon end], as the olden gods and even the angelics. Job says of the angelics that [God] ascribes folly to them [Job 4:17–19]. In other words, they screw up. These are the good angels. Imagine what the ones [do] who don’t care what God says anymore.¹¹ They still have their sovereignty. That sovereignty, when Christ was resurrected and went, according to the Book of Hebrews, and put His blood on the altar, God gave Him all that sovereignty. Psalm 82:8: Take, God, your inheritance of the entire world, not just Israel, but the entire world.¹²

God has appointed Michael to watch [over] Israel. You have the Prince of Persia and the Prince of Grecia. Those entities are still around, and they are still involved [in the affairs of mankind]. They have not died yet as far as I know. I know I am jumping around, but the earth will become — a lot of these entities will start to begin walking down the street because they will be able to without being feared by people. They will proclaim themselves as divine being (which they may be in terms of “gods,” small “g,” elohim), and they will say, of course we’re good.¹³ There will even be a fake rapture. Satan is still in heaven by the way.

JW: Satan is here right now.

DWS: Right. He can come and go, just like he did —

JW: He was outcast, he was an outlaw from heaven, he came down here 50,000 years ago.

DWS: Well, I don’t know.

JW: There is 666 on every barcode.

DWS: Yeah, well, are you spiritually influenced by everything you buy then? In a minor way, maybe —

JW: I know who Satan is. I have [had] experiences with him.

DWS: No, you know a being that purported to be Satan. How could you prove that?

JW: Trust me.

DWS: Is it because of your feelings? I have a friend who —

JW: It’s not because of my feelings. I think you are misinterpreting the Bible, to tell you the truth. These things are way out there. Do you understand what I am saying? If you really believe this, that’s great,

¹¹ They have been judged and are in prison. Jesus visited them after His resurrection, 2 Peter 2:4; Jude 6.

¹² Psalm 82:8 quote: “Arise, O God, judge the earth: for you shall inherit all nations.” Who is being addressed in this verse, God the Father, the Almighty? No. It is the Son of God (addressed as Elohim) by El (from Psalm 82:1), YHWH, the chief of the Divine Assembly. He said He “shall inherit” the inheritance of “all nations” to His Son.

¹³ Note 2 Corinthians 11:14–15. The reference to “ministers of righteousness” can also include non-human entities:

“And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.”

but it just doesn't make any sense to a common listener who will be listening to this show.

DWS: Well, they can make up their own minds. 50,000 years ago. That's nice. How can I answer that? Where is that in Scripture?

PJ: Talking about aliens, we are not allowed to talk to them or spirits, are we David? We are not allowed to talk to spirits or aliens, to talk to them?

DWS: No. There is no reason to. They have nothing — they fear you, or they should because of your potential. This is my difference with the New Age. We are not gods now. But I guarantee you that if you have the Spirit of God in you, you shine to them. They don't want to have a lot of contact with you. Now, if you are an ignorant Christian and don't know what you are talking about in terms of doctrine and knowledge, yeah, they will interact with you, and they will lie to you, and they will “deal” with you, because they want to seduce you [“seducing spirits,” 1 Timothy 4:1]. They want to lie to you.

JW: What are your thoughts on reptilian shape-shifters?

DWS: I think Immanuel Swedenborg had an interesting take on that.¹⁴ By the way, I worked with a company that first brought David Icke over [to the United States], and he even quotes something that I wrote, and [he] misunderstood it, but he refers to it in one of his books.¹⁵ Shape-shifting reptilians. I think Swedenborg has it [a hint of a proper understanding]. In the biblical visions, say the vision of John [in the Book of Revelation], he goes into [or has] a vision, or Ezekiel [are examples].

Ezekiel was taken to Jerusalem [Ezekiel chapters 40–48]. Did he actually leave where he was sitting or standing and go to Jerusalem? The answer is no, because in some of the visions Ezekiel had, other people were around him and they did not even know he was having a vision [Ezekiel 8:1–2]. Likewise, the apostle John in the Book of Revelation and he had all of his five senses. He had touch, he had taste, he had smell, and he had hearing [of course, the fifth sense was sight].

Immanuel Swedenborg describes hundreds of contacts with angelic beings. He did not distinguish between good and bad. A lot of them were probably neutral. Not every spirit is bad, but it is not up to us to distinguish good from bad. How does a spirit get information? They do not go to your library and start reading books. Very few of them are capable of doing that. They can only observe human beings and listen to discussions and read your auras and everything else, and your emotional states. They are very fine tuned to that.¹⁶ It's easy to be [like] a “god” when you can become invisible and walk through walls. It is easy to portray yourself as a god.

Now, [as to] shape-shifting. I will get to it eventually. Swedenborg said that when one angelic would come into his vision he would be, for example, in the mountains. It was like Swedenborg was there. Then that angel [as Swedenborg termed them] would leave and another angel would come and he would [suddenly] be by the seashore and they would talk face to face. This is the nature of visions. You can have this hologram type of thing, like the holodeck on Star Trek, where people “see” the shape shifting, but I do not believe there is any genetic shift going on in reality.

¹⁴ Immanuel Swedenborg was a Swedish occultist and a professed Lutheran, but highly unorthodox. His unbiblical theology was totally wrong, but he was a keen observer who gave detailed descriptions of his experiences, which parallel the reactions of biblical authors who experienced contacts by angelic beings and in visions. Beyond this descriptive aspect, his work is useless.

¹⁵ In Icke's book, Children of the Matrix: How an Interdimensional Race has Controlled the World for Thousands of Years—and Still Does (2001), p. 71, he writes:

“The American researcher David Sielaff emphasizes that the Nefilim or Nephilim are not the sons of the gods (beni ha-Elohim), but the offspring of the interbreeding between the extraterrestrials the Bible calls the Elohim and the daughters of men.”

While it is true the Nephilim are not the Sons of God, the Sons of God are not “extraterrestrials” as understood in the popular sense. They are heaven-born and originally resided in heaven.

¹⁶ They are called “familiar spirits” in Leviticus 19:31, 20:6, 27; Deuteronomy 18:11; 1 Samuel 28:3, 7–9; 2 Kings 21:6, 23:24; 1 Chronicles 10:13; 2 Chronicles 33:6; and Isaiah 8:19, 19:3, 29:4.

But David Icke says the Queen of England is a reptilian and that people have seen her shift. That could be possible [that people “see” such things], and I don’t know if she is an occultist. What I am saying is that she does not actually change, but the appearance of her does change. This is a more logical explanation of that (I have yet to give it to David Icke face to face) than what he proposes. He lost a good share of his audience when he went there [promoting the concept of shape shifting as a genetic change]. I think he is wrong. I think he is mistaken.

That does not mean that this is not what people observe. I am saying they are misunderstanding what they observe. The same with UFO sightings and abductions. Just because you see a craft does not mean that is what is there.

JW: Okay, that doesn’t make any sense.

DWS: What does make sense, genetic manipulation in six seconds?

JW: Yes. I have actually seen a reptilian shape shift, so I know it is true. And I have been abducted by aliens; I know it is true. I don’t know why you are saying people are seeing these things and they are not there? Is that what you are saying?

DWS: They are seeing what they are seeing, but the interpretation is implanted.

JW: The interpretation —

DWS: I have no doubt that they are seeing what they [think they] are seeing. What I am saying that what they are seeing is not necessarily what is there. There was a book, and I have been struggling to get ahold of it again. It had to do with the application of magnetic fields [directly] to the brain. What this book described is that they were able to put, literally, not bar magnets, but horseshoe magnets at different portions of the brain [right on the skull] and induce visions. These are simple, off-the-shelf magnets. They found out that this was injurious to the subjects, so they stopped. But they wrote a book about it.¹⁷

Likewise, when I was at Fuller Seminary, they have a School of Psychology there. They brought a guy in who told about experiments he was running. He was a Christian psychologist. They [his team] were running experiments and putting electrodes on various places on the brain, on the skull, and they were able to induce glossolalia, speaking in tongues, which is different from the speaking in tongues in Scripture.¹⁸ [They] were literally able to induce this and the person was fully conscious. And [the subjects] thought they had a mystical supernatural experience, and all they did —

JW: Yeah, but this is not done to the entire population. These people, what they are seeing is real. Do you make your living off the website that you have?

DWS: Yes. And a small percentage on the books [that we sell]. That’s it.

JW: Okay.

DWS: We do not have a big organization.

PJ: And I love it.

DWS: We do not hold mass meetings or anything like that.

PJ: I love it, I love it. The Associates for Scriptural Knowledge that you do David, I love it man. [garbled] fantastic.

DWS: Let me go back a little bit, about the UFOs. You are familiar with much of the literature? John Keel in his book Our Haunted Planet says, ¹⁷ The book is Magnetism and Its Effects on the Living System by Albert Roy Davis, Walter C. Rawls, Jr. (1974).

¹⁸ Read Dr. Martin’s articles, “The Corinthian Experience,” “The History and Prophecy of Miracles \(and their Failure\),” and “The Teachings of Pentecost.”

“The mating of ordinary women with supernatural beings is an integral part of all religious lore. It is emphasized in the Bible.”

• John Keel (1930–1999), Our Haunted Planet, 1971¹⁹

This occurred all over the world, the mating of supernatural beings with women. Every culture that has a flood narrative (and that’s almost all cultures and all religions), almost all of them have a tradition of supernatural beings mating with women. Do you believe that happens, James?

JW: Yeah, I’m just failing to understand. These people are actually seeing these reptilian shape-shifters. They actually see UFOs, they are actually seeing aliens. Are you saying this is a mass hallucination? Is that what you are saying?

DWS: No, no. The entities, the reptilians, do I think they are shape shifting? I don’t think so, but then, if that shape-shifter would come off the dais, or off the throne, or whatever they come down to, or the raised platform, or whatever, it varies from group to group, and then go shake hands with people. I have met people who have shaken hands with demons.²⁰ There are reptilian entities, supernatural entities. Satan is one of them, when he chooses to appear like that, or he can appear as a shining light. The study of nachash in the Hebrew Old Testament is very interesting. We don’t exactly know what it is or what they are, but it seems to indicate a shining being of some sort that can fascinate.²¹

John Keel goes on in Our Haunted Planet, chapter 12, “The Demise of the Gods”:

“The startling truth, as carefully recorded by the ancient historians, is that the ULTRATER-RESRIALS have always been in direct contact with millions of individuals and that THEY ACTUALLY RULED DIRECTLY OVER MANKIND FOR MANY YEARS. In recent centuries their influence has become more subtle, but it is always there.”

• Keel, Our Haunted Planet, Chapter 12, “The Demise of the Gods,” emphasis mine

Keel published this in 1971. He died in 1999. He is one of the best UFO guys that ever was. Jack Vallee wrote a book titled Messengers of Deception. The UFO entities lie all the time, almost always, about the important things.

The book, When Prophecy Fails, the book where the term “cognitive dissonance” came from.²² The authors invented it. This was [about] a group of psychologists from a college who encountered a group of UFO believers similar to Bo and Peep who [whose followers] committed suicide in [Carlsbad, CA] years ago. They [the psychologists and students] infiltrated the group professing to be believers and then the group started receiving prophecies and the prophecies did not come true.

It [the book] was an analysis of the group. Half the group walked away, and the other half became even stronger believers when the prophecies failed. They watched the analysis.²³ It is called When Prophecy

¹⁹ Keel is a very incisive writer, but I do not endorse everything he writes.

²⁰ The victims of such interactions (children at the time) did not do so by choice. They were terrified. Perhaps such a gesture was to demonstrate the reality of the entities. People usually died in the rituals, or so it is reported by surviving witnesses I have spoken with personally.

²¹ In Hebrew, the word “serpent” is nachash (Strong’s #5175), a very interesting term. The word seems to indicate a glorious shining being. The word is found in Genesis 3:1–2, 4, 13–14, 49:17; Exodus 4:3, 7:15 (the rod Moses cast down became a nachash); Numbers 21:6–7, 9; Deuteronomy 8:15; 2 Kings 18:4; Job 26:13; Psalm 58:4, 140:3; Proverbs 23:32; 30:19; Ecclesiastes 10:8, 11; Isaiah 14:29, 27:1, 65:25; Jeremiah 8:17, 46:22; Amos 5:19, 9:3; and Micah 7:17. We know that the nachash, or serpent in Genesis is the being identified in Revelation 12:9 and 20:2 as the dragon, “that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan.” Other forms of the Hebrew noun also mean enchanter, enchantment, divination, and the metal copper or bronze, as well as the verb “to enchant” and “to divine,” depending upon the context and vowel pointing.

²² When Prophecy Fails: A Social and Psychological Study of A Modern Group that Predicted the Destruction of the World by Leon Festinger, Henry W. Riecken, and Stanley Schachter (1956). See also Cognitive Dissonance: 50 Years of a Classic Theory by Joel M. Cooper (2007).

²³ Festinger, his fellow psychologists and students followed the events and group dynamics of the UFO group after the prophecies from spirit entities (supposed aliens) failed to occur.

Fails, it's been republished and it is in my local library here in a new publication date [50 years later], and it is a marvelous book. It turns out when you analyze [some] of the people, they found out that the government had already infiltrated the group and more than half the group was either government people, or the psychologists. It was a small group about 12 to 14 people, less than 20 people.

JW: It was Cointelpro. They were Cointelpro [an acronym for "COunter INTELLigence PROgram"] is what you are saying, right?

DWS: Yes, but they also having supernatural contact through people going to levels and the spirits speaking through them. Of course, minor prophecies came true, local prophecies for the individuals to build up the confidence of the group. Then the spirit stopped contacting them.

This is the game that they [the spirits] play, whether it is the Mormons, or whether it is with the angel Gabriel coming to speak to the Prophet Muhammad. All of these groups, most religious groups, this is how they start, through that type of contact. The Stelle Group, the Osape Book, the Urantia Book, all of this is channeled material. All of it. And it comes from spirits as well as the information that the different conspiracy groups get, most of this is channeled material.

Chapter 15 [of Keel's book] talks about the many people [who] are missing. John Keel goes on:

"The record shows that the ultraterrestrials have a need for physical human beings. Once they were quite open in demanding specimens to serve that need. ... They once exploited the human race in the guise of benevolent gods living on hilltops; they now exploit us through the modern myth of extraterrestrial visitors from distant stars."

• Keel, Our Haunted Planet, Chapter 15

The government is afraid because they don't know what is going on. The entities that they are in contact with lie to them all the time! I have met people who have spoken to the entities, seen them face to face, they were not human beings. They were not human beings dressed up in suits because the necks were too irregular and too long. It was part of their government job and they were not in an altered state like you often have in rituals.

Ancient Oracles

All of the [ancient] oracles dealt with altered states, all of them. I can't remember ... I'm over 60 so I have an excuse. Things go in and out of the brain. There is a book by [the ancient author] Plutarch, who had multiple initiations. He was a priest of Delphi and he wrote a book called On the Cessation of Oracles, and do you know when that happened? [It was] after Christ was resurrected. It slowly started happening. Did you learn this in your education from the critters? I don't know.

I have a friend of mine. His mother who is in her 90s grew up in Eastern Europe [before World War II] in a Catholic town. On a particular saint's day, the saint of this town at some time during the middle of the night a [bright] light would come from the hill, come down from the hill and go right through the center of the village.²⁴ It happened every year. How do you explain that stuff?

PJ: I don't.

DWS: Spirits. Big deal.

JW: How would you say this relates to listeners? What can they take from this? What is going on every day in relation to these spirits or these entities that relates to them in their everyday lives?

DWS: If you are stuck in this kind of stuff, get out of it right away. All phenomena has to fit a biblical model, and I believe mine does. My worldview, which I believe is biblical, fits more phenomena than any other. That is an opinion of course. John Keel in 1970 in an earlier book Operation Trojan Horse speaking about UFOs, obviously the title is self-descriptive. He writes:

²⁴ No one and nothing was carrying the light. This light went through the town by itself, and only on that day. The people of the town took this to mean that the "saint" was present and watching over the town.

“The real UFO story must encompass ALL of the many manifestations being observed. It is a story of ghosts and phantoms and strange mental aberrations; of an invisible world that surrounds us and occasionally engulfs us; of prophets and prophecies, and gods and demons.”

• John Keel, Operation Trojan Horse, 1970, emphasis mine

Keel was not a Christian and yet he was right-on with his objective analysis. How does this relate to individuals? If you are having encounters with these entities, get the heck out of there, in terms of they have no “right” to deal with you, on any basis, whatsoever. Through Christ you have every right to tell them to get lost. Don’t talk with them. Don’t discuss with them. Don’t be fascinated by them, and don’t “screw” with them, let me put it bluntly. Don’t play with them. They are not there to do you any good whatsoever. Is that what you wanted to hear, because that is what I believe.

JW: I agree with that. I just — what would you say the government’s role is? You say they have a role with the government?

DWS: John Keel said it also. He said they’ve always been around. They’ve always been in contact, and you don’t go to the farmer who is digging in the field for turnips, you deal with the people at the top. They are still doing that. Now, whether the people at the top are the elected leaders of the United States, Europe, and Australia, I don’t know. Yes and no. They lead in some things. Government is a giant conspiracy anyway. All governments are a conspiracy. And the first rule of government is to stay in power.

Look at Assad in Syria. He is holding on tooth and nail. Why? Because it’s fun? I don’t know. He has nothing else to do, and he doesn’t want to die. He’s in a corner. If he leaves power, he dies, just like Saddam Hussein [dead dictator of Iraq], just like Gadaffi [dead dictator of Libya].

What fascinates me is not evil in the world, so much, that is a given. What fascinates me is how many good guys there are in the world that actually do put the bad guys in jail. Nobody is 100% clean or righteous or good. Jesus said none is good but the Father [Matthew 19:17; Mark 10:18; Luke 18:19]. Yet there are people who are trying to do good even in the worst of circumstances. The young girl who was shot in the head in Afghanistan [Pakistan, all she wanted was an education]. [And] those who are fighting against the stupid cultural belief of female circumcision [in some Muslim cultures], it is horrendous.

Christian Missionaries and a Peruvian Tribe

Let me give you another example that I have been told. When I was a student at Fuller Seminary, I was a student there and worked there for [7] years after I was a student, 9 years total. The best course I had there was called “Folk Religion.”²⁵ There was a student there from Peru who said, I am here in this country and this school. My tribe sent me here. Our tribe was in the bush [in the interior, in the jungle] about 20 years ago, and our parents always cut the children into tattoo marks, according to the commands of the demons that were given by the shamans. We didn’t know they were the demons. We thought they were the gods. Why? Because they told us they were.

Then the missionaries came through and they said, no, there is the High God and His Son Jesus Christ. The High God is the Creator, and those [gods] are spirits. Everything clicked [for them]. The whole tribe converted, like in New Testament times. You know, they didn’t have to cut their children any more. The children hated it and the parents hated to do it because it was painful, but why? Because these disgusting spirits told them to. Why? Because, I don’t know, they had some limited power over this tribe that was in the interior [of Peru].

²⁵ This course was taught by the School of World Missions and taught how religion is practiced, in contrast to the “orthodox” religions (Christian and non-Christian) around the world, which have little relationship to how religion is lived by people.

He was one of the first generation not to be cut and sliced and tattooed with knives. They had to do it with knives and no painkillers. Obviously [some] of those children died. This [testimony] was unsolicited and this was in a [small] group talk thing. He said, that is why I am here, because God saved my people. I am going to go back, learn what I can here and go back [to teach them what I learn].

That is a good use of missionaries. Most missionaries, I don't have much use for. They go to a country with their family and if they get into trouble, they get bailed out right away. I don't blame the families, I don't blame the organizations, but how does that look to the people that they have a mission to. Okay, my kid gets sick, I can't get healthcare. Your kid gets sick and you go back to the States, for however long it takes. Most missionaries talk about hell, immortal soul, and the trinity, which I don't believe is biblical, so I don't have much support of missionaries, but in that instance, my whole view of missionaries [changed].

Missionaries don't teach those [three] doctrines as much, until they get to — because all “religion” is folk religion. I know Christians who do amulets and do garlic all over the place when they “sense” a spirit. That is sad that people do that, and yet they do. It is very interesting.

How does this relate to real life? The word of God is the Scripture. That is all you need, but you have to study the word of God, not just read it. Accept the translation as given. For most translations the modern versions for the Old Testament are quite good because [they are] in a modern language, and all you are looking for is story flow. But when you get to the New Testament, you've got to get good literal translations: Rotherham, Young's, the Concordant Literal Version, or do your own study on the eons, on soul, what is soul, and how is it [the word “soul”] used. “The soul that sins shall die” [Ezekiel 18:4, 20]. Do a study on death. Death is not life in another form. Death is death. You cease to live. You cease to exist.

If you go to a main[stream] evangelical, Protestant, or Catholic Church, you won't get that [information]. You get something else. They don't deal with the major doctrines. When is the last time you heard a sermon proving the trinity? They mention the trinity. They say the trinity is necessary to be a Christian, but I don't see the trinity discussed in Scripture. First Corinthians chapter 8, there is almost an entire chapter about food sacrificed to idols, but you don't see anything about the trinity. Did the Corinthian ekklesia have to believe in the trinity? I declare — NO.

JW: People are going to say this goes against all the teachings that Christians have ever been taught.

DWS: It goes against theology. It doesn't go against the Bible.

JW: It goes against the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. That is the sacred Trinity in the Christian Church. This goes against everything that Christians are taught.

DWS: It's not biblical. I don't care what they're taught. It is not biblical. Show me where — oh, they're baptized in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit [Matthew 28:19]. Does that mean that the Holy Spirit is a person? No. Well, would you baptize into a person? No. That [the trinity] is not a developed doctrine [in Scripture]. We are told that [this] doctrine developed through the councils with other men who had Holy Spirit, who then told us [about the trinity]. What they do not tell you is that there were ancient pagan trinities, and that the doctrine of hell was used before Christianity to enslave people.²⁶ And people like Cicero [a 1st century BC Roman philosopher, politician, lawyer, orator] even state that. Even Cicero says that [at] death, you cease to exist when you die. This was a man who was immersed in the mysteries [mystery religions], with multiple initiations, just like Plutarch [about 100 years after Cicero].

²⁶ See my 2006 article (based on Dr. Martin's research), “The Pagan Immortal Soul and ‘Double Doctrine,’” which discusses how the doctrines of hell and the immortal soul are used to control and religiously enslave people from ancient times. The concept of a hell did not come from the Bible. The Greek historian Polybius (2nd century BC) wrote about Roman history before and during his lifetime. This pagan author tells us about the fiction of hell, which was promoted in his day. See The Histories of Polybius, Loeb Classical Library (Harvard University Press, 1922–1927), 6.56.12 at http://penelope.uchicago.edu/Thayer/E/Roman/Texts/Polybius/6*.html:

“For this reason I think, not that the ancients acted rashly and at haphazard in introducing among the people notions concerning the gods and beliefs in the terrors of hell [the punishments of hades].”

JW: What would you say the goal of your organization is?

DWS: Just to preach the gospel that you are already saved. That includes not only human beings, that includes every intelligent being, including Moloch, including every angelic being, and including Satan. That is clearly what it [the Bible] says.

JW: So you think that Satan is saved, who rebelled against God, is saved? He is doing everything to go against God, is this what you honestly believe?

DWS: You did [you rebelled] before you were converted.

JW: I don't under — I mean, ...

DWS: You just didn't realize it.

JW: This is — so you are saying Satan is saved when he kills people and [garbled] a hell on the earth and goes against God and all of His teachings?

Salvation of All

DWS: Yes! Satan will be saved. I'm not preaching to Satan, I don't care about him. God will take care of him in His own good time. Our responsibility is to human beings, not to spirit entities. But do I believe they will be saved? Yeah. I call it universal salvation. Scripture uses the term reconciliation of all in Colossians 1:20. Let me read to you Philippians 2:8–11:

“And being found in fashion as a man, he [Jesus] humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross [stake]. Wherefore God also has highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name:

That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.”

• Philippians 2:8–11

The word confession in the entire Bible is always voluntary — without exception, always. You get the same thing in Colossians 1:20. This is just for starters, not to convince you from these few verses.

“And, having made peace through the blood of his cross [stake], by him [Christ] to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven. And you, that were sometime alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now [you] has he reconciled.

• Colossians 1:20–21

He will reconcile all things and all beings. God is in the creation business. Why should He fail? In 1 Timothy 2:4 it says: “Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.” Do you know what that word “knowledge” is? It's not gnosis, it is ep-gnosis. It is [it means] full knowledge of the truth. And when you have the full knowledge of the truth — do you believe you will have someday the full knowledge of the truth? Yes, as a believer in Christ's work of salvation. That involves Christ's righteousness, His life, His death, His resurrection, and His ascension. If you believe that Christ did not actually die, then you better study some more and work on that.

JW: I didn't say that.

DWS: If you believe we have an immortal soul, then Christ did too, and Christ only died in His body.

JW: Yeah, that's exactly what I believe. That is actually the accepted belief, that you have a soul that goes on. Not that you die and that's it.

DWS: You don't define death. The Bible defines death. The dead know nothing [Ecclesiastes 9:5–6]. So, did Christ know nothing for three days and three nights that He was in the grave? Theology would have you believe that he was actually preaching to the spirits, but Peter makes that clear that happened after [His resurrection, 1 Peter 3:18–19].

JW: You believe when you die you don't go anywhere, you don't go to heaven, you don't go to hell, you don't get reincarnated, nothing, you just have to wait for the rapture, is that what you are saying, or the resurrection of Christ?

DWS: Resurrection. I don't believe in a separate rapture. When Christ comes to split the Mount of Olives [Zechariah 14:4] — by the way, that is how you recognize the false [Christ,] antichrist. If there is a light that comes down from heaven and comes to the Temple and proclaims that he is God, there might be an earthquake, but if the Mount of Olives doesn't split, then that ain't Him. It's the wrong guy.

PJ: Wasn't it when people say, like oh now He's come back, but that was all figurative. You hear people say silly things like that?

DWS: They can believe that if they want, but you know, prove that from Scripture.

PJ: It has to be physical, not just metaphorical, it means —

DWS: I have seen Benjamin Crème talk about Maitreya, and all that stuff. Maitreya is practically 70 years old now. You mentioned that the antichrist is alive now James, but I'm not so sure. He'll probably be around 30 years old, 33 when he is killed by Christ and the spirit that possesses him will be thrown in the lake of fire. I think both the false prophet and the antichrist will be possessed.

Look at the guy who betrayed Christ, Judas, who was a priest by the way, which was how he was able to get access into the Temple to talk to the high priest.

JW: “Judas Priest.”

DWS: Yes, “Judas Priest.” He had to be possessed. He rebelled against his rebellion at the end and Satan had to possess him in order to fulfill the prophecy [Luke 22:3 and John 13:27]. Once again, Satan is a tool. Does Satan think he is an independent actor? Yes, probably, but he is on a leash. Does that mean that God creates evil? Yes. It says that in Isaiah [45:7]. That is a tough nut for people to swallow. Otherwise, evil just occurs on its own, it's spontaneous.

Armageddon

PJ: Isn't Armageddon an actual place, a location of Har Megiddo, David?

DWS: Yes. Armageddon, Har Megiddo, the valley of Megiddo is where the armies gather. It is not — no battle is fought there. The battle is fought at Jerusalem and east — where Edom is located east of the Dead Sea. There will be two fronts to that battle. Christ will destroy the eastern army, and by the way when it says the blood will come up to the bridles, it is talking about the goo that is formed when Christ kills all those people, and it splashes up to the bridles from the hooves of the horses. Then He will come to the Mount of Olives. We will be resurrected, we will be gathered, and we will meet Him at the Mount of Olives and He will destroy the antichrist outside of Jerusalem.

JW: So you think Christ has the power to destroy Satan, is this what you are saying?

DWS: Yeah, but He won't. Eventually Satan will be reconciled. Satan will be put into the [bottomless pit, Revelation 20:3] ~~Lake of Fire~~ during the millennium, then he will be let out, for some reason, I don't know why God wants to do that, probably to show how susceptible people are [to temptation]. Not everyone in the millennium will be saved right away. They will have to go through the [great] white throne judgment. Then after the millennium the new heaven and new earth will be created and God the Father will literally come to live here on the new earth [Revelation 21:3]. The old earth probably will be burned up.²⁷

²⁷ After Satan is let out for a season, Revelation 20:7–8:

The new earth will probably be ten times larger or more, because [God] will be resurrecting, probably in stages some 40 billion people who will have been born since Adam. That [number] is a guess, I don't know. You will have to accommodate all those people. They will be resurrected to the physical. All your relatives that weren't saved in the resurrection [when Christ returns], presuming that you and Paul and myself, we'll all be there in the first resurrection.

I told some of this to a cousin of mine and I told her some of this, what will happen at death. I told her as I told you, you will take a last breath or have a last conscious moment, and your next conscious moment, you will wake up, and I will try to be there and you will remember our discussion. For my cousin, no time will have passed. Not only that, she will have full memory and full [capabilities].

If you are an adult, you will be resurrected as an adult, probably about 30 years old to the physical. You will be able to marry again and you will be taught, probably by resurrected spirit beings, just as you have been taught about Christ. How much do you have to know to be saved and to be in the Kingdom of God when Christ returns? I don't know.

Is Jesus Christ Living as a Man on Earth Today?

JW: Some people believe that Christ is already here. What if He is already here and is just a regular person, what will happen then? What if He was just reincarnated and was just a regular person, what would happen then?

DWS: He'd be the antichrist. Will he be able to — Look, Jesus said even you guys, you apostles, would be this close to believing he is the real thing. These were people who spent 2½ years in the ministry with Him and saw Him after His resurrection.

JW: Hypothetically, what if Christ was reincarnated and He was a regular guy, what would happen then? Let's say he's a regular guy, he was the reincarnation of Jesus Christ, what would happen then?

DWS: I don't see any biblical evidence of that. Where do you get that?

JW: I'm talking about a hypothetical situation.

DWS: How would you verify that, that that is the Christ? By what criteria?

JW: Let's just say it was, Let's just say that this guy was.

DWS: No. I'm not going to accept your premise. How can I? [garbled, over speaking over each other]

JW: ... a hypothetical situation.

DWS: Okay, a science fiction situation, because that's what I would consider it to be.

JW: Hypothetical. It could be true, you don't know, it's just science fiction. What would happen if Christ was just, say, walking around, in Europe or something, and he was the reincarnation of Christ.

DWS: Then the next most appealing philosophy that would appeal to me proposed by the guy, ~~Erie Segal~~ [Richard Bach] who wrote Jonathan Livingston Seagull, not that book, but another one that he [wrote, Illusions: The Adventures of a Reluctant Messiah],²⁸ that we are just here to learn and we go back into [God, who is] an amorphous mass of intelligent gelatin, or something.

“And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison, And shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle ...”

Then Satan the devil will be cast into the Lake of Fire (Revelation 20:10), during the great white throne judgment period, probably lasting another 1000 years.

²⁸ Richard Bach's 1977 novel Illusions: The Adventures of a Reluctant Messiah was a fictional account of Bach's encounters with a “messiah” who taught that we each create our own reality. This goes contrary to Proverbs 9:10 regarding reality: “The fear of YHWH is the beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of the holy is [the beginning of] understanding.” The assumptions of Bach in Illusions, while entertaining, do not conform with human experience or the Biblical revelation.

We are pulling near the end here, we've got five minutes. I can't conceive of that because I only think in terms of biblical evidence and information. How would you possibly even know that he is the Christ. The term ["Christ"] means Messiah. Well, Messiah has to do this and He has to do that, and He has to do this. He has to fulfill biblical prophecies and if He doesn't do that, [by] what criteria could He be the Christ? There is a guy walking around saying he is, there are probably many walking around besides Maitreya.

JW: What if it was verified, like this guy was the reincarnation of Jesus Christ, what would happen then?

DWS: How would you — what, DNA? You couldn't verify it. It wouldn't be the real Christ.

JW: I'm just saying, the hypothetical situation, how would you know? What would happen?

PJ: We'll have to save that for our next time. [garbled]

DWS: Well, I had a good time.

PJ: Great fellas. Thank you very much David. Thank you for joining us and we're going to have you on in a month's time, and thank you my beautiful equal host of mine, James, thank you.

JW: Thanks guys

PJ: You're welcome.

DWS: Sure.

PJ: David, we have one minute left. How can people contact you. You have your website www.askelm.com?

DWS: Correct, the word "ASK" and then "ELM" like the tree. That's www.askelm.com, and you can just encounter this on the website, all the different articles that we have.²⁹ If you give permission, I will put this on the website.

[Paul Jamieson graciously granted permission to print this interview.]

END SHOW

David Sielaff, February 2014

Addendum by David Sielaff

I learned after this show that James Russell Weston believes that HE was Jesus reincarnated. Knowing this now, I understand the nature of his questions toward the end of the interview. If I had known this information, would I have answered differently? Somewhat, yes. I would have asked him, "what acts of righteousness have you done consistent with you being Jesus?"

When the disciples of John the Baptist asked Jesus who He was, He told them to tell John:

"Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and show John again those things which you do hear and see: The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them."

• Matthew 11:4-5

This is somewhat different than how James Weston lives, by his own admission. While I do not recommend the interview (it is not edifying), I must note what he said in his own words so there is no misunderstanding. See "James Weston's interview with Daniel Ott." Scroll down to the January 21, 2012 program at 58.00 minutes. He believes in reincarnation (with no memory of past lives, of course), which I did not fully recognize during the interview. The blurb accompanying the audio says, "In the interview James claimed he was told by Satan ... that he was Jesus reincarnated." This interview was indeed strange.

DWS

²⁹ We have articles for the current year at the "Doctrinal Article Index" and "Prophetic Article Index." Within these pages are links for the "Doctrine Archive Index" and the "Prophecy Archive Index" for over 100+ older articles on each page.